

Kids Under Construction

Hey Kids!

School's almost out and we can't wait for summer!! You know what I've been thinking about lately? Just how blessed we are! It is such a blessing & privilege to be able to go to a church where the adults really care about making sure the kids are taught well. The leaders at our church realized how important our job is to teach all you kids, and to get you ready to do God's work... that's what we're doing... building kingdom disciples. You are so blessed to be a part of a church like ours—where the leaders are committed to you. And you're so blessed to have parents who are committed to raising you and teaching you to love Jesus! Most of you will never remember a day you didn't know and love Jesus—what an awesome thing!!! So take a minute to thank God for blessing you that way. And take a minute to thank your parents for bringing you to church. AND, when you see Mr. Poole, and the other men who are leaders at church, thank them for caring about YOU!

Love in Jesus, Mrs. Kathryn & Mrs. Laurin
