“Come to me, all
you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.
Take my yoke
upon you and
learn from me,
for I am gentle
and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.”

UNDER HIS SMILE

“What would it be like to know that we already have the approval of the only One whose opinion matters? What if we knew that this One, who created the universe, is actively involved in carrying out his plan for our lives and that his plan is good, to bless us and not to harm us? What if we grasped that his will toward us is kind, and that every moment we are under his smile?”

“There is so much we need to know about God. What is he like? Can we trust him? How can we know for sure? Unfortunately, it often feels too risky to let go of our commitment to our own plans and strategies in order to learn about God. Our need to perform feels more urgent than our need to know and trust God So we work to improve, to impress and to succeed. But the way to genuine transformation begins by asking God to free us from the need to perform, and to open our eyes so we can see the One who earned for us the permanent smile of his Father.”
